OTHER REQUIREMENTS

Throughout the school year, only the items listed here may be worn to school and in the building. All shirts are to be tucked in throughout the day, and undershirts must be white and properly fitted. Clothes should be neat, clean, and well kept.

Conservative style belts are required for all items with loops. Belts must be conservative in color, and either woven, synthetic, or made of leather. Scarves and sashes are not allowed. Shoes must have closed heels, and sandals must have heel straps.

Socks may be colorful, but neon colors are not allowed except on free dress days. On "Spirit Days," students may wear any school spirit shirt and blue jeans that are not too tight and that are free of frays, holes, or excessive stitching. During winter, students may wear personal heavy coats in and out of the building as long as they are button-down or zippered.
